

BIEDERMEIER BERGERES AC424

Pair of large and comfortable Hungarian bergeres with voluted padded arms, voluted feet and stretchers. Veneered with cherry and Hungarian ash on oak, inlaid with maple palmettes, ebony fillets and maple hairlines. Finished on all sides for free-standing. Second quarter of 19th Century. Hungary.

19"/34" h, 29"-33" w, 25 1/2" d

Design, details and woods are exemplary for the region of Hungary and the 1840's