

ART DECO/ART MODERNE CT531

American Art Deco dining extension table by Gilbert Rohde designed for Herman Miller, as illustrated in the 1939 catalog. Veneered with mahogany and maidou burl in checkerboard panels on the elliptical table top and 2 original extension leaves.

Original catches and pulls. Late 1930's. America.

29" h, 72" w (120" with two leaves, each 24"), 36"-40" w

Reference: page 42, Leslie Pina "HERMAN MILLER GILBERT ROHDE", 1939, Schiffer.