

LOUIS XVI BERGERES AC231

Pair of uncommonly designed Baltic Louis XVI barrel-back gilt wood bergeres with serpentine front rail over three turned fluted legs. Russia, end of 18th Century.

18"/35" h, 26" w, 27" d.

Reference: Hakan Groth "Neoclassicism in the North", New York, 1990.; figs. 32 and 86 (two comparable bergeres connected with a sofa on either side).