

OTHER PERIODS COT334

Unequaled Indian 19th Century marquetry console table in walnut. Table top, frieze drawer, apron, cabriole legs and platform base with bun feet magnificently inlaid with multiple hairlines in silver and mother of pearl and fillets in exotic woods, depicting scrolling foliage, branches, leaves and rosettes. 1840's/50's.

35" h, 40"/50" w, 16 1/2"/19 1/2" d

Exemplary for the uncommon and costly furnishings of the leading social class in 19th Century India which were used to showcase power and wealth of it's owners. Most expensive materials were used as well as designs which were in vogue in Europe i.e. 19th Century Rococo influenced furniture under the French King Louis Philippe was in fashion in India as this console table confirms.