

BIEDERMEIER CENTERTABLES CT194

Extremely rare large diameter round German Biedermeier center table matching veneered with walnut on pine. Octagonal pedestal with Gothic motifs verifies the beginning of the Historicism period, already during the Biedermeier period. Four splayed legs. South Germany, second quarter of 19th Century.

29" h, 57" diameter

Reference: Plate 2, issue 4 "Der Bau - und Moebelschreiner oder Ebenist" (The carpenter and cabinet maker), Carl A. Heideloff, Nuernberg, Germany, 1837; chapter "Tische aus dem 14. Jahrhundert" (Tables from the 14th Century).