

BIEDERMEIER CONVERSION TABLES CT149

Drum-shaped South German extension table in cherrywood (solid and veneered on pine). Uncommon and firm construction: table-top (not the apron) opens up to carry the (later) extension leaf. Tapered legs. 1st half 19th century.

31" h, 48 1/2" diameter, 68 1/2" w(w. 1 extension leaf).

Reference: fig, 571 Prof. R. Haaff's book on South German Biedermeier. See Bibliography.