

BIEDERMEIER CONVERSION TABLES CT394 THREE LEAVES

Very large German Biedermeier dining extension table with three extension leaves. Veneered with crotch mahogany in book match pattern. Table top and apron inlaid with double hair lines in maple. Pedestal with fine palmette carvings. Pawfeet. A pair of original supports with original castors on either side stored under table top. Circa 1830/35. North Germany (Flensburg?)
31" h, 47 1/2" dia, 114" long overall (each leaf 22")

Reference: Museum Flensburg (North Germany), fig. 435, Catalog of the Museum Furniture Collection, 1976.